Netccentric COO to step back from active management

Netccentric Limited (ASX: NCL) today announced that Timothy Tiah Ewe Tiam will leave his current position as the Chief Operating Officer (COO), effective 1st November 2016.

Tiah is leaving the Company to pursue other opportunities and his departure coincides with the streamlining of executive management positions with the Company.

His planned departure caps a distinguished 10-year career that began in 2006. Over the past 10 years, Tiah helped create and implement monetisation strategies for the company's businesses.

Most recently in his role as COO, he spearheaded Netccentric's entry into our two new markets of Indonesia and Taiwan.

No replacement has yet been chosen for the COO position. Upon Tiah's departure, Netccentric's co-founder and CEO, Cheo Ming Shen, alongside his regional team, will take on the COO's duties and responsibilities.

Netccentric is a leading Social Media Solutions Innovator, which operates an integrated portfolio of business units across 9 countries, namely Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Australia, Philippines, China, Indonesia, Taiwan and the UK.

Tiah will remain on the board of directors and stay on as an advisor to Netccentric Limited, whilst pursuing other personal interests.
